ヒアシンズの球根を育てている間、ベルリンを離れ、足の手術をすることになった。
戻ってきて気がつくと、二つの球根からは花が咲き始めていた。
片方はとても背が高く、花の重さに基が耐えられないほどだったので、とりあえず
竹串の支えを添え、花が折れないようにして窓辺に置くことにした。
その様子を見ながら、なんとなく鳥の絵を数枚描いてみた。

While looking after the hyacinth bulbs, I had to leave Berlin for a foot surgery.
When I returned, the two bulbs were already starting to bloom.
One had grown very tall, and it didn't seem like the stem could handle the weight of the flower. I put up a temporary bamboo stick for support to help the stem from breaking and placed them by the window.
I observed them for a while and made some casual bird drawings.
